Lighting Up Staghorn

For many of us, Christmas is a time of joy and cheer. For others it may be a time of grieving for times past. Our Staghorn Chapel is a place to visit if you need somewhere to just get away and reflect on life. It is beautiful this time of year.

Many residents of Staghorn have chosen to celebrate Christmas by lighting up their homes and in some cases lighting up their docks.

Breakfast with Santa a Huge Success

Over 60 people of all ages enjoyed Breakfast with Santa where families were served Eggs, Sausage and Pancakes with Syrup.

VOLUNTEERS MAKE STAGORN SPECIAL

We are so fortunate to have a community of volunteers that make it possible for events like Breakfast with Santa to happen. Volunteers set up the Clubhouse for Santa under Cheryl Martin's amazing leadership

Volunteers Cheryl Martin, Becky Clement, Vicki Sutton, Nancy Will, Pam McGee and Vicki Long.

When it came time for us to enjoy the Breakfast with Santa meal it took more volunteers like Mark Harrell, Bob and Karen Hutchinson, Susan Gieler and many more chefs and servers.

Be sure to thank Pam and David McGee for putting up all those decorations on our monuments and the Staghorn front gate lights. For years it was Phil and Sylvia McCart that put up the decorations.

SINGING CHRISTMAS CAROLS AT STAGHORN

Christmas is a time to enjoy the songs of the season. At Breakfast with Santa, we had a trio of helpers to coach our audience on the words of Christmas Carols like Jingle Bells, Away in a Manger, Hark the Herald Angles Sing and even Rudolf the Red Nose Reindeer.

We had little ones singing and dancing to the music. One family with good voices was the family of Architectural Chair Rick McRee.

I wish you all a holiday season filled with love and laughter. Your dues payment and your willingness to volunteer make Staghorn a special place to live.
