Merry Christmas from Staghorn

Staghorn is a wonderful place to live especially during the Christmas holidays. It's great fun driving through our neighborhood and looking at the Christmas lights. What a beautiful sight.

Nothing like pancakes, sausage and scrambled eggs on a chilly December morning for Braelynn Truby, the King's granddaughter.

The “Breakfast with Santa” event took place on December 9, 2023. Almost 50 adults and children came to the Staghorn Recreation Center to enjoy a special breakfast, to sing Christmas carols and to see smiling children sitting on Santa's lap. Thanks to the coaching and event promotion of Cheryl Martin. And the setup by Pam and David McGee.

Santa Visits Staghorn

At 8:00 AM preparation began for the big day. Vicki Long was busy cooking scrambled eggs while Bob Hutchinson and Mark Harrell flipped the pancakes and checked the sausages in the oven.

By 9:00 AM families began to arrive. They were encouraged to find a place to sit and get in line for their special breakfast. Tona Harrell and Karen Hutchinson made sure the food was hot and acted as servers while Nancy Will served the orange juice and chocolate milk. Craig Gieler, with the help of Pippa Fouche, led the singing of Christmas carols.

Thanks to Vicki Long, at 10:00 AM sharp the front door of Staghorn's Recreation Center opened and guess who appeared? It was “a little old man so lively and quick, I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.”

Scenes from Breakfast with Santa

The Woody and Wanda King family all got together and wore matching Pajamas and two girls wore Santa Claus slippers to “Breakfast with Santa”. It was a big hit with everyone.

The Adam and Macie Fouche family came to help out with the Christmas Caroling and Pippa’s shirt was “All Lit Up”. She helped pass out Christmas music and sing Christmas songs.

Making Spirits Bright

If you drive down Hwy 335 in the evening, you have seen the 20-foot-tall Snowman and beautifully decorated home for Christmas at 7345 Brockton Road.

This is the home of David and Becky Bowen who moved here from the Buford – Suwanee area. They are life long sweethearts having met at the age of 16. Both graduated from Georgia State University. Becky has always enjoyed decorating for Christmas but this season has special meaning as she lost both her parents this past year.
