Merry Christmas to All!

It is the time of year when Staghorn homeowners celebrate by decorating trees and sharing Christmas joy with one another. The 13th of December marked the arrival of Santa Clause at the Staghorn Recreation Center and children were there to greet him.

“Breakfast with Santa” is a special morning event when residents join for a time of merriment. Almost 50 guests were served breakfast, sang Christmas carols and were visited by Santa Clause. The expression on the faces of children seeing Santa was priceless.

A Special Holiday Morning

Everyone at “Breakfast with Santa” was served eggs, pancakes, sausage, chocolate and regular milk and coffee. Karen and Bob Hutchinson along with Michael and Deborah Shattuck prepared a great meal. Kristin Swart helped organize the event and offered a prayer.

Families Come to Celebrate

Staghorn homeowners considered “Breakfast with Santa” as a way of getting family and friends together for a special time of sharing. Families that attended this fun event with children were Barnes, Clements, Davis, Elrod, Foster, Greene, Gustafson and more. The Townley family has attended this annual event for many years and presented Santa with a book of pictures commemorating it.

Making a Joyous Noise!

Families enjoying their breakfast were treated to Christmas carols led by Craig Gieler with children joining in on the fun. The songs that were sung included favorites like Jingle Bells, Rudolf the Red Nose Reindeer as well as Away in a Manager and Deck the Halls.

Staghorn Ladies Jingle and Mingle

Staghorn ladies gathered on the evening of December 17, 2025, at 6:30 PM to enjoy a fun time of exchanging gifts.

Ladies drew numbers out of a hat and when a number was called the holder got to pick a gift, lowest number first. Everyone celebrated the spirit of the season and made new friends while enjoying delicious appetizers and desserts.
